The Democratic 'Revolution' of 1954: Personal and Public Legacies

Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii

October 23, 2004 (Saturday)

9:30 (Refreshments till 10) – 12 p.m.

History was made in 1954 when for the first time, Democrats gained control of the Hawai'i Territorial Legislature. In commemorating the 50th anniversary of that historic event, this public forum features a panel presentation by leading Japanese American Democrats elected in 1954 and subsequent years.

Speakers:

George Ariyoshi, Representative, 1954-1958; Senator 1958-1970; Lt. Governor, 1970-74; Governor, 1974-1986

Mazie Hirono, Lieutenant Governor, 1994-2002

Roy Takumi, Representative, Pearl City-Pacific Palisades

Scholar: Dan Boylan, History, UH West O'ahu

Moderator: Jon Okamura, Ethnic Studies, UH Manoa

First in the JCCH Japanese American Social Issues Series in Hawai'i
